A COURAGEOUS BANK TELLER. - During the last two or three weeks a teller in one of our city banks found at the close of the day's transactions that his cash was deficient to the extent of five hundred dollars. After much fruitless search, the teller came to the conclusion that he would have to stand the loss. One morning he was surprised by the receipt of a letter, proposing to restore the amount it a sui-table reward was paid. It immediately occurred to the teller to compare the disguised handwriting with that of each document which had passed through his hands on the day in question. In the process of a comparison more than once repeated, he discovered a draft in which he could trace some indication of similarity. His next step was to have the whole of the drafts of this individual, written under every variety of circumstances, sought out, and carefully scrutinized. His suspicions were confirmed. Being a resolute fellow, and feeling that delay might be dangerous, he supplied himself with a pistol, and with two friends on whom he could rely, took the bold step of going to the house of the suspected party, in Alleghany, which was reached at a late hour in the evening. On obtaining a private interview, he stated blandly that he believed some mistake had taken place between them on money matters, which he was desirous of having arranged. In reply he received a flat denial of any such mistake having occurred. Finding that mild treatment was ineffectual, he altered his tactics; told him with a determined air, that he was in no mood to be trifled with, and that he had indubitable evidence of the money having been obtained by him. Presenting his pistol, he threatened to shoot the swindler on the spot if the money were not immediately forthcoming. Thrown off his guard by the sudden and extraordinary appeal, the poor man fell into a tremulous fit, and admitted that he had been overpaid five hundred dollars. He gave the tellar a check for the amount, and offered him a bonus to keep the matter from publicity.-The teller indignantly refused the bribe, but consented to keep the culprit's name from publie notoriety .- Pittsburg Mail.

A VALUABLE CUT.—There is said to be a paper in Philadelphia which has one wood-cut. It was engraved originally to represent Arthur Spring, but the proprietor liked it so much that he determined to keep it on hand and run it into the paper whenever anybody else was hung, or died, or was elected or made a speech. And so every time a portrait of anybody was wanted this wood cut was altered to fit it. First, the hat was cut down; then the nose was chiselled into various shapes; then the eyes were gouged a little; then the beard was altered and the cheeks hollowed out. It never at its best looked like any human being that had ever existed in this wide world; but that made no difference, for the proprietor always jammed it right in every time with a fresh name and a biographical sketch. It has served already for James Buchapan, Jeff Davis, Probst, General Grant, Susan B. Anthony, Mayor Fox, Senator Revels, Artemus Ward, Daniel in the Lion's Den, Wittemore, Jefferson as Rip Van Winkle, Ristori, Asa Packer, Governor Curtin, and a score or two of others. It is somewhat rusty now, the old wood cut is, but the owner clings to it with unalterable affection, and the first time anybody does anything alarming, in it will go again with a new sketch. This won't make so much difference now, because the block is very much worn, and when the picture is printed you can't tell, to save your life, whether it was intended for a man's face or for a study of a simoon in the Desert of Sahara.

KLEPTOMANIA .- A New York correspondent of onc of the Philadelphia papers refers to a singular case of kleptomania in one of his letters, some days ago, and adds: In a previous letter mention was made of a remarkable case of kleptomania, the klepto maniac being a lady who devotes her leisure and ability to stealing parasols. Further developments are decidedly entertaining. It appears that the woman in question has been married for some four or five years, but her husband till the present time has never had the least suspicion of her singular failing. Mrs. Smith-to call her for convenience sake, by a wholly impersonal name-had in her large and elegant house a little boudoir which she always kept closely locked. It was one of those apartments which in New York When examined the other day, by some detec tives, the walls of this apartment were found decorated with nearly a hundred parasols of all sizes and varieties, from the cheapest to the most expensive. There were several richly decorated with lace, valued at fifty dollars apiece. The kleptomaniac has been several years forming this unique collection.

A MAMMOTH DIAMOND.—The Jacksonville, Illinoise, correspondent of the St. Louis Republican says: The noted stone called the Carson Virginia diamond is now in this city, and your corres pondent has been permited to see it. Its size is about that of a duck's egg, very heavy in proportion to size, weighting seven ounces. The side are slightly encrusted with a fine adhering sand, through which the stone glitters. The two ends of the stone have been battered off, and in looking through the endsoljects can be seen beyond. If a true diamond, it is cerfainly the largest in the world. |Oh! that BAD WRITING .- The Sceretary of War has found it necessary to check a custom much in vogue among hasty writers, and has issued an order directing the attention of the army to be called to that portion of the Regulations which when signing official letters, returns; accounts, &c., should write their names plainly," and a proper compliance therewith is erjoined on the officers of the army. Papers hereafter received with illegible signatures affixed will either be unnoticed or returned for compliance with this regulation.

SWEET QUININE Is a Recent Improvement.

Replaces the use of the BITTER SULPHATE QUININE, with which all are familiar.

Dose for dose it is WARRANTED

Fully equal in every way to Bitter Quinine, And, like it, is the one Great, Positive and Unfailing CURE for al DISEASES OF MALARIOUS ORIGIN.

DISEASES C.

Fever and Ague,
Intermittent Fever,
Chill Fever,
Remittent Fever,
Bilious Fever,
Dumb Dumb Ague. and the long train of disorders following these when neglected.

SWEET QUININE s made solely from Peruvian Park (so is Bitte Quinine,) therefore it is of Vegetable origin, and not a Mineral Poison, but on the contrary is proved to be one of the elements found in the blood of all healthy persons.

SWEET QUININE

ets as an antidote to, as well as a cure for, malarial or miasmatic poison, the absorption of which by the lungs causes Intermittent Fevers, etc. The only advantage claimed for over the use of old Bitter Quinine is the entire absence of that intense, persistent bitterness, which in the latter is an insurmountable obstaele to its use with most persons, and always with children.

SWEET QUININE

is in two forms-in Powder, for the use of Physicians and Druggists, and Fluid, for use in the family and for the general public.

JOHNSON has discovered the most Certain, Speedy, and only Effectual Remedy in the World for Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor, Low Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dimness of Sight, or Giddiness, Disease of the Head Throat, Nose, or Skin, Affections of the Live. Lungs, Stomach, or Bowels—those Terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the song of Syrens to the Maniners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage, &c., impossible.

Especially, who have become the victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an ultimely grave thousands of Young Men of the most excellent talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Sena-tors with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to estacy the living lyre, may call with ful

MARRIAGE.

Married Persons, or Young Men comtempla ting marriage, being aware of Physical Weak ness, Organic Debility, Deformities, speedily eured.

He who places himself under the care of Dr J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affection, which renders the miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of impropriety.—Young persons are too apt to commit expenses from not being award of the dreadful. cesses from not being aware of the dreadful cesses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body and mind arise. The System becomes deranged, the Physical and Mental Functions Weakened, Loss of Procreative Power, Nervous Irritability, Dyspepsia, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Constitutional Debility, and Wasting of the France, Consumption, Decay and Death. DR. JOHNSON, DK. JOHNSON, Member of the Royal College of Surgeons. London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known, many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashtulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind; were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and soli tary habits, which ruin both body and mind untitting them for either business, study, socie whatting them for either business, study, socie enects produced by early habits of youth, viz Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimenes of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart Dyspepera, vous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestiv Functions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Averson to Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced:

the evils produced: Thousands of persor of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, ner-vous and emaciated, having a singular appear-ance about the eyes, Cough, and Symptoms o

Consumption. YOUNG MEN. Who have injured themselves by a co-tain practice, indulged in, a habit fre-quently learned from evil companions, or , t school, the effects of which are nightly feit, even when asleer, and, it not cured, rendermarriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain so cret habit. Such persons must, before contenplating MARRIAGE. effect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial hap-piness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair and filled with the melancholy reflection that the happiness of another becomes blighted with your own. DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE. When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seedof this painful disease it too often happens that an ill-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those, we from education and respectability, can alon befriend him, delaying till the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease make their appearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, disease nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on the shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity till at last the palate of the mouth or the Lone of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awfu disease becomes a horrid object of commissera
